Learn to become a certified nursing assistant qualified for the acute care, home care, and long-term care settings with the leading textbook in nursing assistant education. This basics edition of Nursing Assistant: a Nursing Process

Approach is your competency-based resource, with over 100 procedures presented in an easy to read, step-by-step format with photos and drawings to illustrate key skills.

I believe that one of the greatest strengths of this textbook is the reflection of wellness and caring (displayed by personal case studies). Throughout the text, reinforcement of the students' responsibility level is very dominant (as it should be), Skills are a major component with each body system and caring can be seen with positive behaviors. About the Author Barbara Hegner, MS, RN Former Professor Emeritus Nursing and Life Science Long Beach City College, CA. Barbara Acello has worked in long-term care for more than four decades. Currently a nurse consultant and educator, she owns a school for nursing assistants, where she helped to write and develop mandatory state curricula for nurse aides and EMTs. She has also written and contributed to dozens of textbooks, instructor guides, quick reference guides, and supplemental instructional materials for health care personnel. Formerly a practicing nurse, Ms. Acello was also a director of nursing and a long-term care facility consultant. Her interests and expertise include clinical geriatrics, resident safety, pain assessment and management, restraints, pressure ulcers, and infection control. She is particularly committed to improving working conditions, education, and professionalism for personnel in the long-term care industry. Esther Caldwell, MA, PhD, is a Consultant in Vocational Education.
