By momo It is based on a Navajo and real life story of this woman, love it. Some parts brought me to tears. She is a marvelous and outstanding lady on who she became to this day. Love this book, will read more than twice... 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. great true story By Lyn Price loved the book. actually met the author. she asked me to read this and I was amazed at all the challenges she has faced. she is such a lady, and anyone would be proud to call her a friend.

This true story will touch your heart. Sophias journey has been one of hardship and strife but one leading to a glorious fellowship with Christ. June Cornwell, minister, Sulphur, Louisiana The pages of this book unfold a marvelous story of Gods redeeming love which knows no limits, coupled with the life-giving power of Forgiveness. It offers Hope, not only to her beloved Navajo people but to untold numbers of women who feel trapped and often suffer in silence. Its a must-read that will grip your heart as Sophia courageously shares her story. Margie Fontenot, teacher, prayer leader, Deridder, Louisiana Out of the Darkness is an extraordinary testimony that will give hope to the unsaved and those needing deliverance Sophia is a prize example of Gods mercy, grace, and restoration. Charlotte Hammonds, Prayer Warriors, Lake Charles, Louisiana

About the Author Sophia C. Begay is a storyteller. However, this book is not just a story but the telling of a life story and how Jesus Christ totally brought healing change and wholeness to a broken woman. She has described for our Indian people, family, and all of us powerful issues that most families still need to deal with. This journey, as painful as it was, would have nearly been impossible to endure or to reconcile with her past life and the people involved had it not been for her faith in God. In this story, Sophia can be seen as a compassionate child of God and a willing servant to help our people enjoy a bright future with Gods help. (Contributed by Pastor William D. Lee and his wife Virginia Lee, First Wash Assembly of God)
